LOT 83 - János Buda - Abstract No. 354 - 1/1

Artist Description János Buda (1919 – 2005 HUNG / CAD) Buda's life was consumed with art-making, and his early years as an artist included numerous exhibitions in European galleries. From his arrival in Toronto in 1955, Buda was involved in this city's art community, and was a well-recognized visitor to concerts and exhibitions. He was an active member of many groups, including Scarborough Arts Council, where he remained a faithful volunteer until shortly before his death. After Buda's body was discovered in his Toronto Community Housing apartment in 2005, friends and colleagues rallied to save his life's work. Thousands of drawings and paintings were pulled from the apartment, as well as many photographs and albums created by the artist to document his career. Many of his Toronto drawings and personal documents were donated to the City of Toronto Archives by Scarborough Arts Council.
