LOT 24 - Kavavaow Mannomee - Seadance 30/50

Artist Description Kavavaow Mannomee ᑭᓄᓄᓄ (1958 – Indigenous / CAD) Kavavaow (also known as Qavavau Manumie) was born in Brandon, Manitoba in 1958 where his mother, Paunichea, was hospitalized for treatment of Tuberculosis. He returned to Cape Dorset as a very young child and has lived there since. Kavavau has demonstrated a range of stylistic abilities- from the very literal to the more expressive. His thematic concerns include depictions of Inuit legends and mythology, Arctic wildlife and illustrations of some of the more contemporary aspects of Inuit life. For several years, Kavavaow has been involved in the Co-op's graphic arts program as a printmaker – first in the lithography studio and more recently in the stonecutting shops. He is an accomplished and precise printmaker. Kavavaow lives with his wife and son, in Cape Dorset.
