LOT 114 - Paul F Gauthier - Papineau Lake 1974

Artist Description Paul F. Gauthier (1937 – CAD) Born and raised in Toronto. After studying Architectural Technology at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute and working in the field of construction for 25 years; Paul turned his attention to his first love, painting and photographing Canada's wilderness areas. Upon an invitation in 1966 from his father (Joachim R.C.A., O.S.A., C.S.P.W.C.) he started painting on fall sketching trips with a number of artists, including his brother, Edmond, A.J.Casson, Alan Collier, Anthony Law, Bruno Cavallo and others. These excursions and other wilderness expeditions were instrumental in Paul's style development into an impressionist interpretation accentuating colour and drama. Exhibitions: Participated in many exhibitions and Fine Art Galleries throughout Ontario, Quebec, Alberta Awards: 1991, the Town of Markham Achievement and Civic Recognition Award for Art and Cultural contribution to the community Royal Canadian Geographic Society award in 1987, along with logistical support from the Polar Continental Shelf Project to travel the High Arctic Islands. Artist-in-Residence, for Travel Dynamics New York, aboard the vessel Illiria to Greenland. In 1996 an arctic voyage with the Canadian Coast Guard, C.C.G.S. Henry Larsen for six weeks. Commissions: Paul was commissioned by the North Channel Preservation Society, in 1987, to produce a limited edition serigraph on one of A.J.Casson's paintings of Baie Fine. Subsequently, the Ontario Heritage Foundation has enacted an historical brief to contain the site, named Casson Peak.
